Helping to make the right Concrete Decision

Sprayed concrete (sometimes referred to as Shotcrete) is the method by which concrete is sprayed into place, rather than the more conventionally used pouring or placing into formwork. Applications for sprayed concrete include curved structures (inc. shell roofs and domes & tunnel linings) and free-formed structures. Applications also include underground construction, retaining walls, piled wall facings, fire protection to steelwork, and for strengthening and repair works to existing structures. Beton Bauen can offer full technical support in material specification and its practical application, with experienced spray crews and equipment available for sub-contracting works across the UK.

- ▶ EXCELLENT WATERPROOFING PROPERTIES
- ▶ CAN BE APPLIED TO DAMP SUBSTRATE
- ▶ ALLOWS SUBSTRATE TO BREATHE
- ▶ SUITABLE FOR MARINE ENVIRONMENTS
- ▶ RESISTS WEATHERING AND FREEZE/THAW CYCLES
